May I attend this workshop in New Orleans tomorrow? Sorry for the short notice but I learned about it yesterday. Henry Kinney will be making a public push for us to get a sign ordinance at his two Planning Commission appeals at the Biloxi meeting in August, I think this will be a good short workshop on current legal standards.

May I take my car and be reimbursed for milage and the $20 for the workshop or can I take the office jeep?

Thanks, Pat

Hi Elaine -

At the bottom of yesterday's Metro NO APA LA newsletter was a notice that National APA is about to open their portal for session proposals for the 2018 National Planning Conference to be held in New Orleans April 21 – 24. Seem to remember in 2010 there were several mobile workshops to the MS Gulf Coast from the New Orleans conference and possibly a panel or two featuring a speaker from the Coast. The links in the article at the bottom of the newsletter will take you to APA's website (www.planning.org, which will not require a password or user ID) where you can review the tracks and topics as well as the deadlines for submittal.

The APA LA Chapter host committee (chaired by Lydia Jemison, Tim Jackson, Steve Villavaso and Sean Daily) is meeting next Tuesday to start their conference planning with input from the NYC conference, so there may be more news to share after next week's meeting.

Hope to talk with you about this soon-
-Ed
